DEEP AND TRUE AS THOSE BLUE WATERS

Dear Jimmy,
 I'll see you
 this summer as I
 don't need to write to much.
 Love, Mary

a Bird's Eye
 View of Luck
 Lots of your friends from Reville (We can up against Mrs O'Shea
 next year)

Now I lay me down to sleep
 I pray the Lord my soul to keep
 if I die before I wake you tell John, I'll tell Jake!

Patty Benson

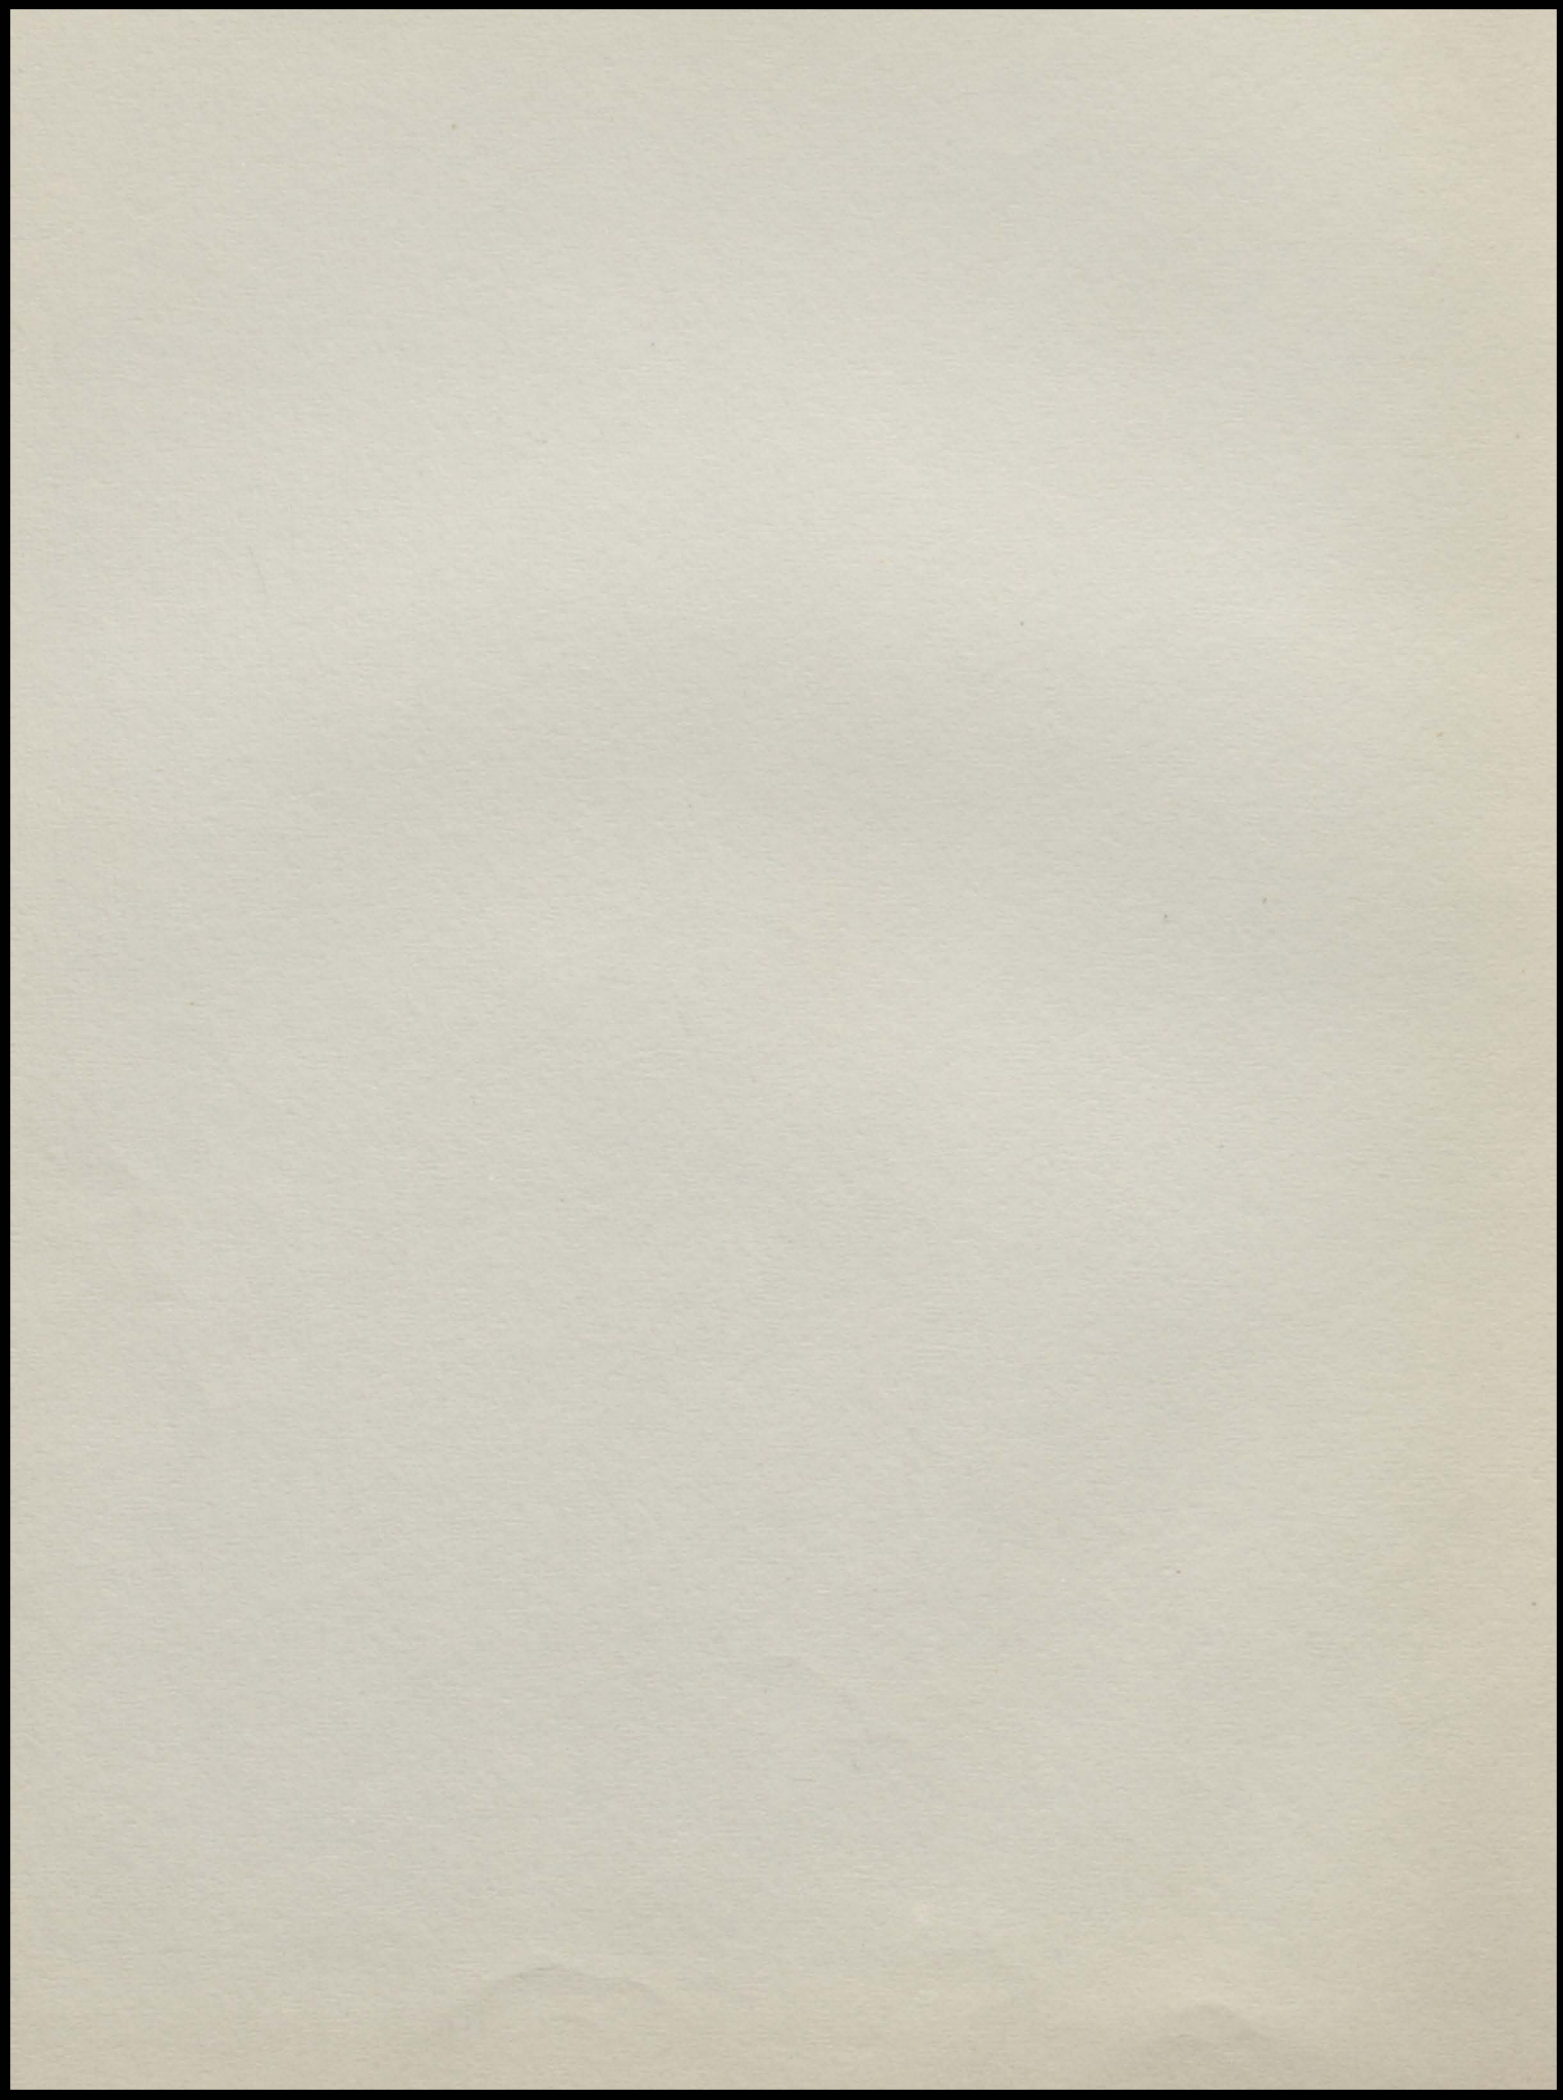

Remember all the misery year
 we went through this year
 ha! ha! (we thought) see you next year when we come back for more.
 (why I don't know!!)
 your loving friend
 Joany L.

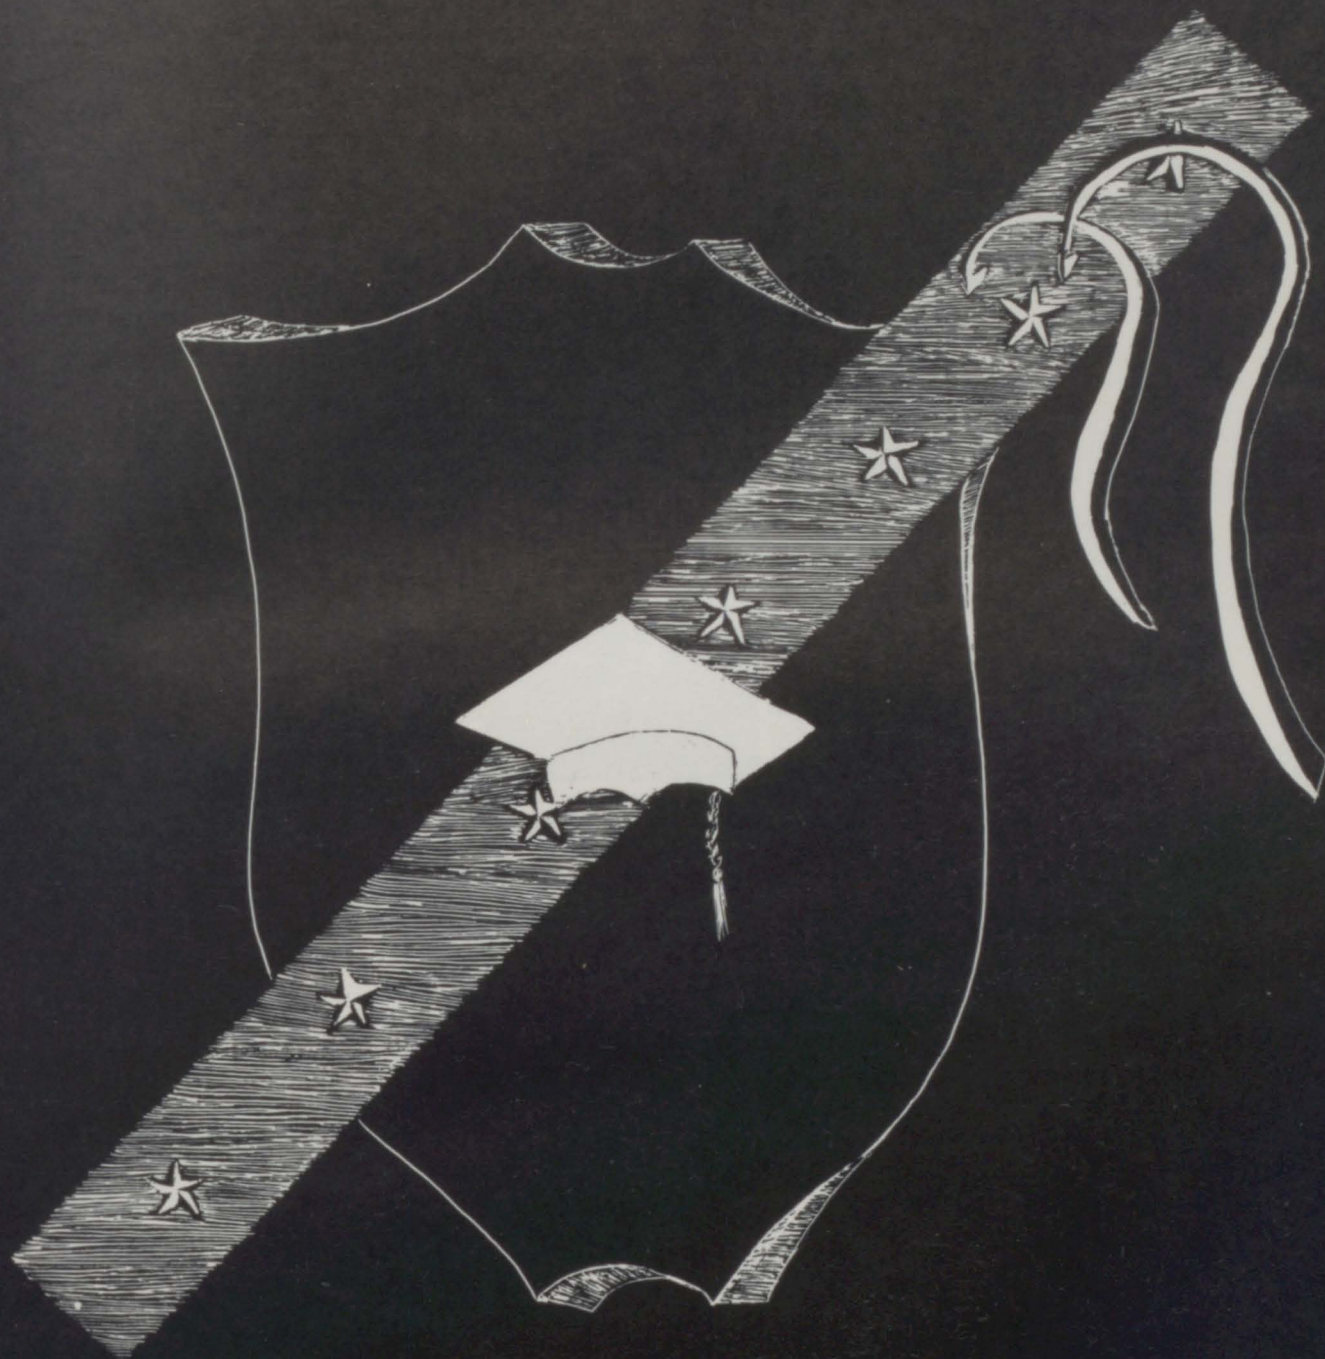

Best wishes to you,
 Marion & Ann

Don't forget
 to write
 to me
 soon

The Annie Wright Seminary

TACOMA 3, WASHINGTON

1960

DEDICATION

For ten years, Mrs. Russell, you have carried an impression of our school, far and wide, to many whose only knowledge of the Seminary has been through your representation. You have united past, present and future Annies into a family of unusual strength and effectiveness. Nearly all who know Annie Wright know also your quick charm, ready humor and constant concern, which are as happily evident within the school as without.

You have represented us, Mrs. Russell, the students; we are deeply grateful for that service.

ALMA MATER

Hail to thee our Alma Mater, Seminary Fair.
May achievements crown thy labors
Is our earnest prayer.

Deep and true as those blue waters
Thou are reared above.
May the characters thou moldest,
Hold thee in their love.

Pure as yonder snow clad mountains
Where our glances fall,
May we in the years to follow,
Answer to thy call.

Chorus

Hearts turned toward our Alma Mater,
May our lives at length
Prove thy daughters bear thy motto
"On from Strength to Strength."

MISS RUTH JENKINS
Headmistress

How can we express what we wish to convey. For several months you were travelling in Europe, yet you were never in any way apart from us. Throughout this year, we have been continually aware of your presence within the school, so forceful, so guiding, that no absence could weaken its impression upon our actions and attitudes.

New responsibilities, new independence have strengthened us. And, certainly, in 1959-60, we have realized and appreciated more than ever before, the depth and breadth of your influence upon each of us.

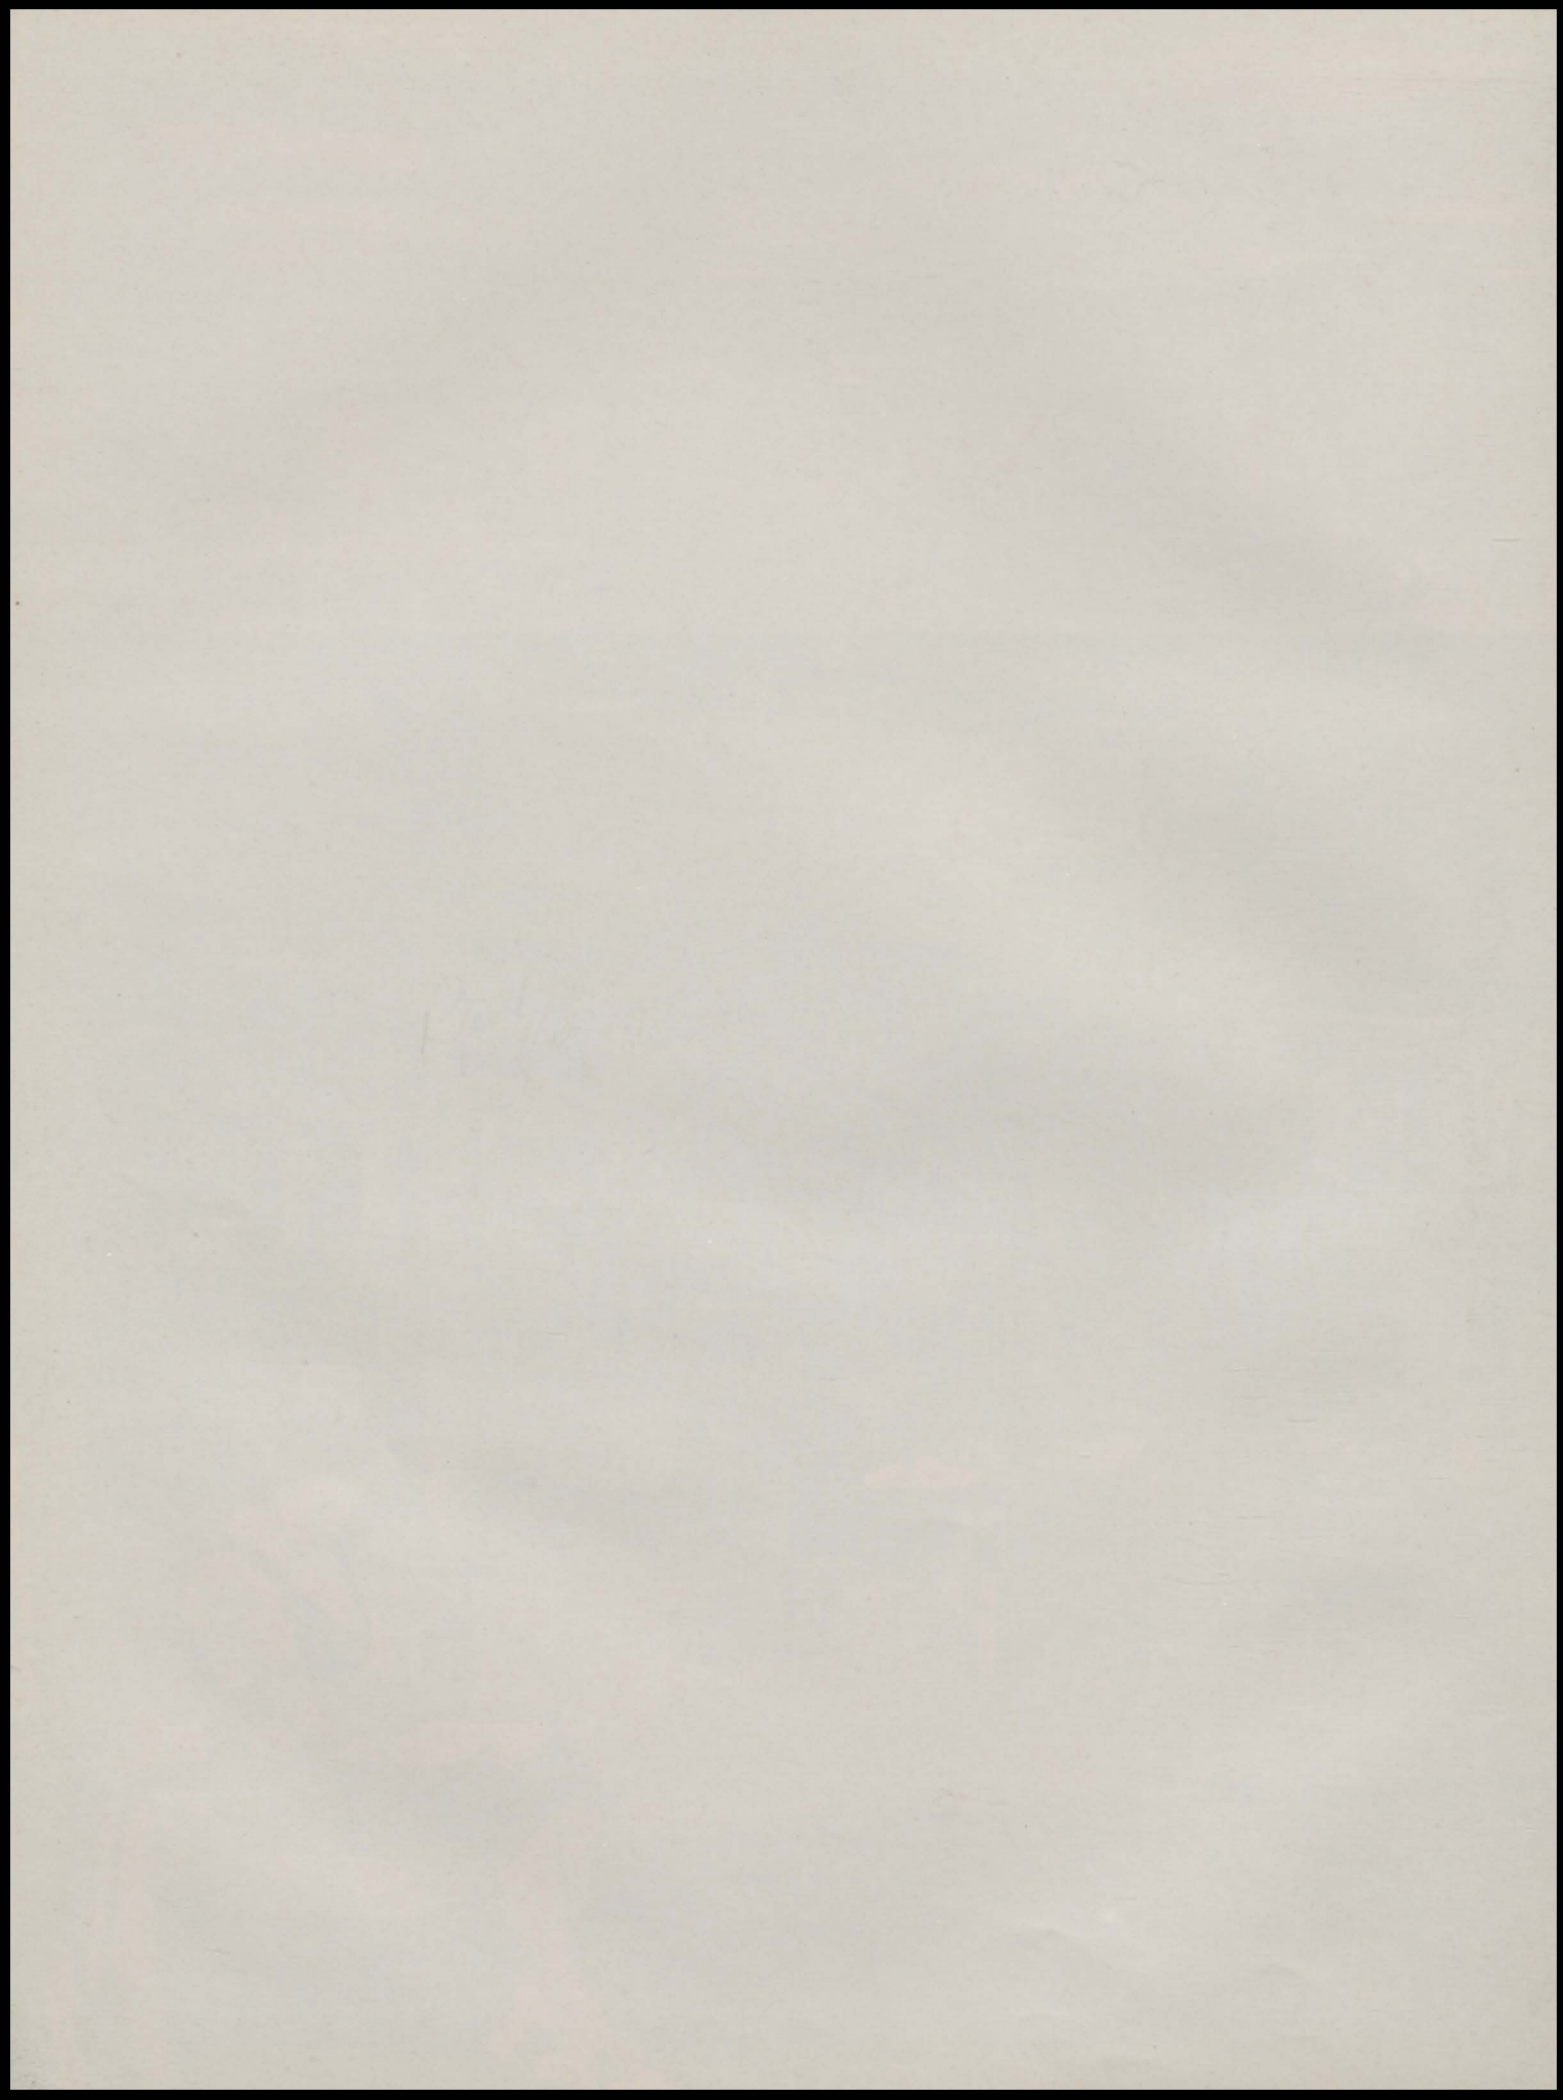

"Book of books, our people's strength,
Statesman's, teacher's, hero's treasure,
Bringing freedom, spreading truth,
Shedding light that none can measure:
Wisdom comes to those who know thee,
All the best we have we owe thee."

MISS NANCY FITZWILLIAMS

Your capabilities and judgment have been invaluable in the past year as you piloted us through "foreign waters." We have admired, before, the blend of warmth and efficiency which never fail you, no matter how deeply involved you are in the many aspects of school life. But that admiration has grown in these months of cooperation. You are a friend in the truest sense.

Onward the Class of Sixty strives,
 Forward to where new victory lies!
 Ever in glory, never found failing,
 We know the future's bright—
 The brightest ever brighter . . .

Banners we wave of Blue and White,
 Standards first earned at Annie Wright.
 Years fly, our colors still high
 We'll bear in triumph
 From Strength to Strength!

SENIOR CLASS

What is a Senior?

A varying mixture
of fear and relief.

She is perched on the top rung of one ladder,
beneath the bottom
rung on another. There is a dizzy, exhilarating
climb ahead; below, memories
form a solid, reassuring foundation for the next ascent. She has not reached an end; she has reached a new beginning.

JUNIOR CLASS

What is a Junior?

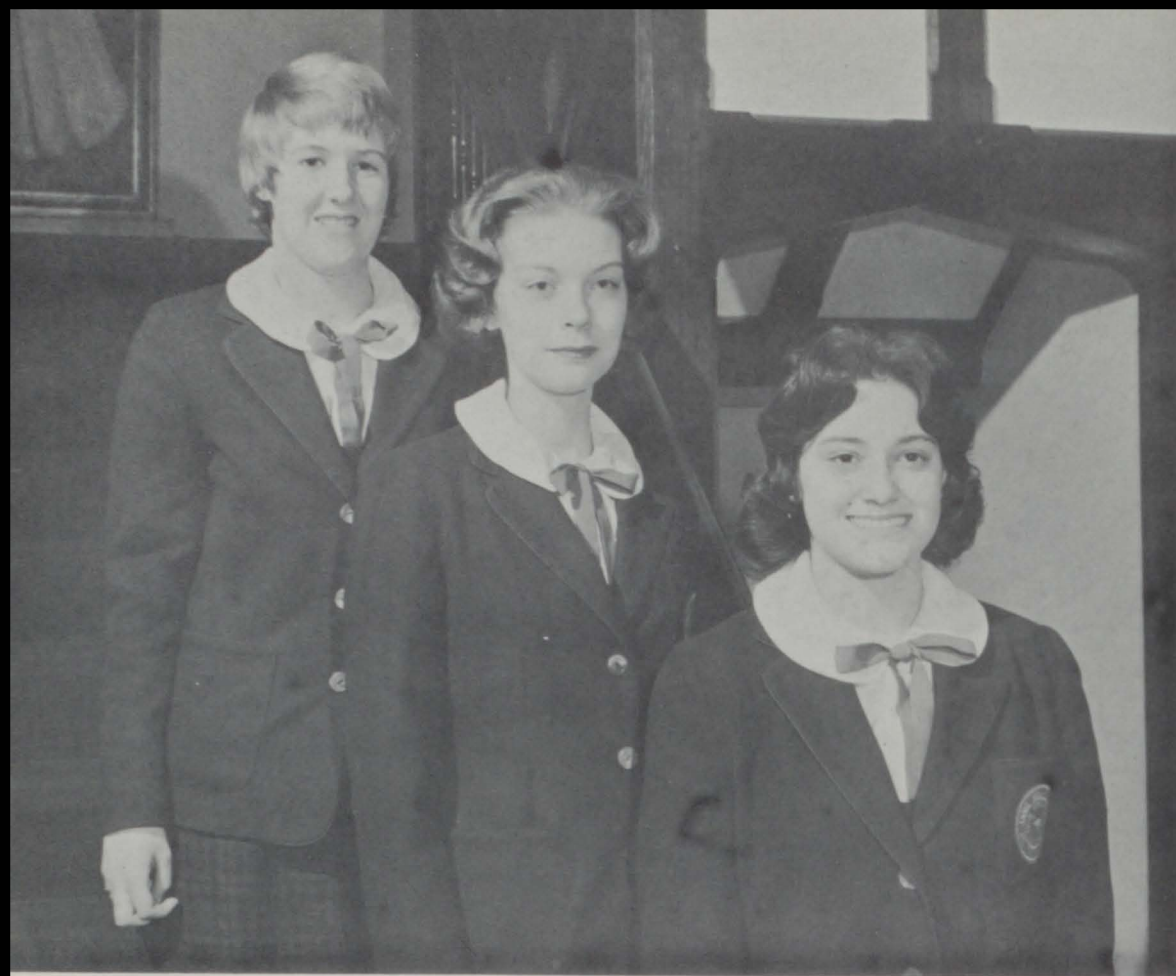

... high hopes ...

She is cultivating composure. Each day that she proves herself more sensitive to her own possibilities and, wonderfully self-conscious, she uses those possibilities to mold a newly authoritative personality.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

What is a Sophomore?

An increasingly aware individual.

Behind an almost calm exterior, she is confronted with new challenges and ideas. She has been faced by seemingly insurmountable problems, until, without knowing how, she has surmounted them. And, in so doing, she attains the promise of independence.
